Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Policy.

1. Section I. D. Premium.

Section I.D.4 of the Policy is hereby deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following language:

4. Renewal. If the Insured wishes to continue coverage beyond the initial term of this Policy, the Insured or its Servicer shall pay renewal premiums to the Company for each Loan insured under this Policy for which the Insured wishes to continue such coverage, calculated at the rate specified in the related Certificate and in accordance with Section I(D)(7) (Calculation of Renewal Premiums) hereof. The Company shall give thirty (30) days' notice of the renewal due date to the Insured or its Servicer, and renewal premiums shall be due and payable on or before the last day of the period covered by the previous premium payment. The premium billing notice shall be based on the rates and rules applicable to the ensuing policy period as specified in the related Certificate and shall include a notice of transfer when the policy has been transferred from the Company to an affiliate of the Company. These renewal premium billing notice provisions shall apply to any such Certificate for which an annual premium was less than fifty thousand dollars for the preceding annual policy period. For purposes of any commercial risk policy subject to the requirements of Connecticut General Statutes sections 38a-663 to 38a-696, the mailing or delivery of a premium billing notice by the Company's managing general agent shall constitute compliance by the Company. In accordance with the lapse provisions set forth in Section I.D.5., if renewal premium is not received by the Company on or before the Lapse Date, the Company shall within thirty (30) days following the Lapse Date provide the Insured or its Servicer with a non-payment notice, after which the Insured or its Servicer shall have an additional sixty (60) day period from the non-payment notice to pay the applicable renewal premium before coverage shall lapse.

For the avoidance of doubt, once a Certificate has become effective with respect to a Loan, this Policy may not be cancelled by the Company for as long as any Certificate issued under this Policy remains in force. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company is under no obligation to issue Commitments or Certificates under this Policy and may cease issuing new Commitments and Certificates without prior notice to the Insured. If there are no Certificates in force under this Policy, the Company may cancel the Policy by giving the Insured sixty days' advance written notice. Further to the terms of this Section I.E.5 (a) of the Policy, and subject to the provision above that the Company shall not cancel the Policy while any Certificate issued under the Policy remains in force, the State of Connecticut, pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes Section 38a-324(a), requires that the Policy state the following list of reasons for which a policy of commercial risk insurance may be canceled in the State of Connecticut:

- (2) Insured's conviction of a crime arising out of acts increasing the hazard insured against;
- (3) discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation by the Insured in obtaining the Policy or in perfecting any Claim thereunder;

(b) Cancellation of the Policy by the Insured

If the Insured desires to cancel this Policy, it may do so by cancelling all outstanding Certificates that have been previously issued under this Policy, including outstanding Certificates on any Loans that are delinquent, in which case (a) any premium previously paid that is unearned (after application of the Company's cancellation schedule) as of the effective date of cancellation shall be returned to the Insured or its Servicer and (b) any premium earned but not paid as of the effective date of cancellation shall be paid to the Company. In calculating any such premium refund, the Company may net out amounts due to the Company pursuant to this Policy.
